

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 7:15; sunset, 4:45.

Body of unidentified, skull fractured, found in rear of Princess hotel, 341 S. Clark. Murder believed.

Frank Wilson, waiter, stole eleven eggs and pound of coffee to aid starving widow. Discharged by Judge Mahoney.

Katherine Schultz, 22, forfeited $600 bond. Charged with beating loop hotels.

Geo. F. Furey sued for divorce by Mrs. Virginia Furey. Drunkenness charged.

Dante Yorenzini, contractor, 2014 W. Adams, sued for divorce by Mrs. Ethel Lorenzini. Said he allowed her 12 cents a week for expenses.

Chas. J. Forsberg, city collector, will ask police to get after men who have not taken out 1917 business licenses.

Patrick Broderick, Oglesby, Ill., robbed of $260 by ragged stranger whom he had befriended.

Meat market owners fined for shortweighting: Morris Silverman, 735 Maxwell, fined $50; Roster & Peller, 6403 S. Halsted, $25; Williams & Co., 7004 N. Clark, $25.

Patrick McNichols, saloonkeeper, 4645 Wentworth av., arraigned for Sunday violation, freed. Lack of evidence.

Jas. Higgins, 406 W. 30th, fined $50 and costs for beating year-old daughter.

Harold Tallmadge, 9930 S. Winchester, fell into bathtub of scalding water. Seriously burned.

John Bemian arrested on charge of murdering Louis Tratt in Indiana Harbor Saturday night.

E. P. Leichsner, druggist, 2160 Addison, fined $25 for selling liquor without license. Chicago Law and Order league complainant.

Burglars got $150 in money and $200 worth of merchandise, including $15 worth of frankfurts, in stores of Peter Schimberg, Robert Lorimer and Rhodin Bros., Evanston.

Coroner investigating mysterious death of Martin K. Powell, former street car conductor, at Chicago State Hospital for Insane.

Fred Gastel, father of Fred Gastel, Jr., millionaire real estate man of Gary, suicide. Cut throat.

Ruth Pierson, 16, 4943 N. Kedzie av., eloped and married Willis G. Ball, ass't sec'y of board of supervising engineers.

John G. Gary denied story that Princess Chimay died in poverty.

J. Maurice Pettit, slayer of young wife, given life sentence.

Joy Morton, multimillionaire head of salt combine, to wed Margaret Grey, nurse who attended first wife.

Julian Bandigan, 2152 W. 18th pl.; Michael Daniels, 2756 21st; Walter Kowalski, 1234 W. 49th pl., and Jos. Wallace hurt when switch engine hit auto.

John A. Muldoon, head of Motor Transportation Co. and candidate for postmaster, married to Josephine Cashin, 4623 Calumet av.

Chas. B. Cory, newspaper reporter, and Edna Thomas Novak, artist and writer, admitted they have been married since Nov. 24.

It took several hours to get three children of Fred Frehe, 2132 Erie, who were suffering with chicken pox, into county hospital. Health com'r investigating.

Thos. Murray, 3801 S. Halsted, found dead. Gas.

Erbstein-O'Donnell still lacks jurors.

Mrs. Celia Waugh, 417 St. James pl., fatally hurt by street car.

Loraine Melville, mother of two babies, 2352 W. Lake, faces destitution. Lost purse containing $35 savings.

Theo. Stuehlke, 5643 Cottage Grove av., suicide. Gun. Trouble with wife.

Chas. E. Riddell, instructor in John Marshall high school and head of Logan Square Business, accused of